

Trip Captain Applications for 2009/2010

Ski World travel is currently looking for people who want to be Trip Captains for the 2009/2010 ski season.

The general guidelines for becoming a Trip Captain are as follows:

- You must be a minimum of 21 years of age.
- You must have an outgoing personality and able to communicate well with customers.
- Your current full time occupation will have to afford you the flexibility to maintain your Ski World assigned trip schedule.
- You will be required to have an email address for communication and trip assignments.
- You will need to make on the spot decisions and judgment calls. The ability to think, acts quickly, and responsibly, are all-important.
- You will need to be contactable on a regular basis by both email and phone. You're being reachable, is essential if you want to be involved as a Trip Captain.
- You will be selected by invitation if Ski World, Jim Sands, and Delna Antaki believe that you are a strong candidate.

You must be able to attend our annual trip captain-training meeting Saturday, . November 7th at the Sheraton Oceanfront, 36th and Atlantic 8:30 AM – 12:30 PM.

Email Jim or Delna at JSANDS2000@cox.net or DLANTAKI@aol.com, if you have questions. Or contact Ski World at skiworldtrave@aol.com.

We look forward to interviewing each of you and talking about you becoming a key player in a very enjoyable and successful ski season.

Thank you,

Ski World Travel
